MISSIONARY WORKERS.

Their Labors Discussed by Distinguished Presbyterians.

EX-PRESIDENT AND EX-PREMIER

Speak of the Great Work Done for Humanity by the Faith of the Missionaries, and of the Great Possibilities of the Future.

New York, Nov. 16.—The Carnegie Music Hall was filled last night with a great crowd of Presbyterians interested in foreign missions. The platform was occupied principally by ministers, among them being Dr. John Hall, Rev. Dr. DeWitt Rev. Charles E. Thompson and Rev. Dr.
John B. Shaw. The announcement that ex-President Harrison was to preside proved a great attraction. When the ex-president arrived he was heartily applauded. Hon. John W. Foster, ex-secretary of state, was also on the platform.

Rev. John R. Davis acted as chairman, and introduced ex-President Harrison as "a great and good man."

General Harrison began his speech by saying that the Presbyterian church has been greatly benefited for its power of resistance. It had stood fast for love and liberty; it had stood fast for education; it had been in the United States the pioneer of education; it had stood for the highest scholarship; and it had stood against that pseudo-scientific philosophy that from the study of God's works finds there is no God, and from the study of His word that He has given us no word. He continued:

"It has been strenuous in its opposition to this doctrine and has stood with the stiffness of a steel beam for the faith delivered by the fathers, and it still stands for the essential doctrine of the inspired word. It is not an illiberal church. No body of Christians in the world opens its arms wider or more lovingly to all who love the Master. It is Catholic in its sympathy and in its cooperation with the churches. The missionary spirit is inherent in Christianity, and we meet here to take counsel as to how we can advance the cause of foreign missions."

"I have seen times in missionary meetings, heard speakers talk about the needs of the board. That seems to me very much like the man who says 'bills are not paid and who will talk about the needs of the board. We are not here to talk about the needs of the board, but the needs of the world. We are here to summon you to the duties which your church membership implies, and which implies much more when you consider the great head of the church."

The next speaker was Hon. John W.
Foster, ex-secretary of state.

General Foster's address was a summary of his observations on the work of the Protestant missions in Asia, first in a tour of the world made two years ago, and in a second visit to Japan and China in connection with the peace negotiations of the present year.

After a brief reference to Ceylon a somewhat lengthy review was made of the great work in India. That country he styled the citadel of Brahmanism, a perfectly organized system supported by caste, apparently impregnable to the attacks of Christianity. A first glance created the impression that the missions were making little progress against it, but a more careful examination and comparison of the state of the country before the advent of the missionaries brought about a different conclusion. He claimed that all the great moral and social reforms were the direct result of the introduction of the gospel, among which were the prohibition of human sacrifice and torture in the religious rites, the burning of widows, the killing

MURDEROUS DETECTIVES.

In Their Zeal to Capture a Thief They Shot the Wrong Man.

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—A man who was supposed to be Clarence White, one of the gang of porch climbers who last spring robbed the residence of Norman B. Ream, on Lake Shore drive, of thousands of dollars' worth of diamonds, was killed by detectives belonging to the Berry agency.
The Berry men have been trying to find White ever since the Lake Shore robbery occurred, and on Thursday evening five of them were standing on the corner of Winthrop place and Polk street. Two men went by in a buggy, and the detectives started in pursuit. The men refused to halt, and were fired upon, one of them being killed. This was supposed to be Clarence White, but proved to be Frank White, a confederate. It is supposed the two men believed themselves pursued by burglars.

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—The latest investigation of the body of White led to startling developments. The discoveries made may result most disastrously to not less than six members of the Berry detective agency, including the superintendent, and possibly a seventh man.

The circumstances surrounding the case go to show that the buggy in which the two men were riding was brought almost to a standstill when the tragedy occurred, and that at least three of the detectives who were detailed as assistants in the arrest of Clarence White made an effort to crowd about the vehicle and emptied one or more chambers of their revolvers in the direction of the innocent man who was killed. As a result of the police investigation a wholesale arrest of the members of the agency was ordered by Inspector Fitzpatrick, and eight men are locked up at police headquarters.

The names of those arrested are: Charles A. McDonald, the superintendent; Joseph A. Weil, David McLain, Joseph Mackenna, Joseph Fischel, Charles Poole, John Frew and J. W. Dix. The name of the man wanted is Thompson. This is the whole force of the Berry detective agency.

Fischel admitted today that he fired two shots into the buggy, and gave evidence implicating Frew and Thompson. The prisoner Poole also admitted having used his revolver. White was shot almost to
pieces by the detectives, two bullets having pierced his brain, two went through his chest, and he was shot through the spine from the rear.

The American Duchess' Departure.

New York, Nov. 16.—So great has been the desire of New Yorkers to see the young Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, and to such lengths has it driven the populace at the wedding and horse show, that the officials of the steamship Fulton, on which the couple embarked today, took extraordinary precautions to keep people at bay.
Admission to the dock and the ship was granted to those who were not passengers only on passes. Persons not provided with passes were required to prove that they were friends of the passengers booked on the steamer before being admitted.

Not Guilty of Murder.

YONKERS, N. Y., Nov. 16.—Daniel Courtney, charged with the killing of Frank Swaney, his son-in-law, was placed on the witness stand yesterday and testified in his own behalf. Mrs. Swaney had separated from her husband and gone to her father, who warned Swaney to stay away. Swaney, with a revolver in his hand and a hatchet in his pocket, forced his way into the house and Courtney shot him. The jury last night acquitted Courtney on the ground of self defense.

A Jealous Lover Executed.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 16.—Amos Dupree, a negro, commonly known as "General Dupree," was hanged at Devil's Bluff, Ark., yesterday. Dupree murdered Robert Harris, another negro, in Monroe county on June 15, 1894. Harris was Dupree's successful rival for the affections of a negroess named Bonger. When the woman killed Dupree and lavished her love on Harris, the forsaken man armed himself with a shotgun and coming upon his successful rival shot him down in cold blood.

Kentucky Legislature Republican.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 16.—In the contest of Wood (Rep.) for the seat in the legislature of Kaufmann (Dem.) a discovery has been made which beyond doubt gives Wood the seat, and will thereby give the Republicans a clear majority on joint ballot in the legislature. It has been discovered that Kaufmann's election, while holding office as a city councilman, was contrary to the statute, and Wood will be seated without further protest.

Windish Testifies in His Own Behalf.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Nov. 16.—The trial of George Windish for the murder of his wife was continued yesterday. The prisoner testified in his own behalf. He said he left home on the day of the murder to look for work, leaving his wife working in the kitchen. He admitted having made threats against his wife's life, but said he was not in earnest.

No Clue to the Colorado Robbers.

DENVER, Nov. 16.—It is believed at police headquarters in this city that the amount of money stolen from the Wells-Fargo company at Colorado Springs was $55,000.
Instead of $20,000, as given out at the time of the robbery. The officials of the company are extremely reticent. So far as known no tangible clue to the thieves has been found.

The Stranded Irrawaddy.

ASBURY PARK, Nov. 16.—The ship Irrawaddy, stranded off Asbury Park, came in for a large share of the storm's fury yesterday, and suffered additional damage by the pounding of the breakers. There seems but little hope for the floating of the ill-fated steamer. Old seamen say that if she is hauled off she will surely sink.

No Second Ultimatum to Venezuela.

LOXDOX, Nov. 16.—There was a report from Washington to the effect that a second ultimatum had been sent to Venezuela by Great Britain's official declaration to be accompanied by a note. The original so-called ultimatum has not yet been delivered to the Venezuelan government.

THE CZAR'S FIRST BORN.

Russia's Czarina Presents the Ruler with a Daughter.

MOTHER AND CHILD DOING WELL.

Sketch of the Charming Royalist for Whose Safe Unprecedented Concessions Were Made by the Orthodox Greek Church.
Her Influence Over the Czar.

St. PETERSBURG, Nov. 16.—The ac-coucement of the czarina occurred last evening. At 9 o'clock a daughter was born to the czar and czarina. Court physicians in attendance at the accouchement of the czarina report the child to be a handsome girl, and they add that the mother is rapidly recovering. Services connected with the birth of the infant were held in accordance with the rites of the Orthodox Greek church. The baby has been named Olga.

The czarina (Grand Duchess Alexandra Feodorovna) was born at Darmstadt, Hesse, June 6, 1872. She was the Princess Alix Victoria Helen Louise Beatrice of Hesse and was married to Czar Nicholas II on Nov. 26, 1894. In accordance with the laws of Russia, and by manifesto issued by Czar Nicholas on Oct. 21 (old style), 1894, she was named Alexandra Feodorovna, and received the title of grand duchess and imperial highness.

Princess Alix was the daughter of Grand Duke Louis IV. of Hesse, and of Alice, princess of Great Britain and Ireland, third child and second daughter of Queen Victoria. Her brother is the present grand duke of Hesse; her sister Irene is the wife of Prince Henry of Prussia; another sister, Princess Elizabeth, is the wife of Grand Duke Sergius of Russia, and her oldest sister is the wife of Prince Louis of Battenberg.

When Princess Alix was but 12 years of age, and while in attendance at the wedding of her sister Elizabeth, she met Nicholas, then grand duke, who was in his 16th year. The children became attached to each other, but the czarowitz's affection for the princess was diverted for some time. Six years later her father made a visit to the Russian court, accompanied by Princess Alix, and her presence in the Russian capital was the means of renewing their liking for each other, but as the princess was then an ardent Lutheran the question of having to become a member of the Orthodox Greek church had to be considered.

Owing to the ill health and subsequent death of the czar, Alexander III, the marriage of Princess Alix and Nicholas was hastened. Concessions, such as were never before secured in embracing the Orthodox faith, were obtained from the Holy Synod. The princess was not required to declare her former religion to be accused, nor that her conversion was due to the conviction that the truth lies not with her own, but with the Russian church. The Holy Synod was satisfied with the simple declaration that the princess joined the Greek church in order to be of the same religion as her husband.

The czarina has artistic tastes, loves music, and is fond of outdoor sports. She is of a sweet disposition, sympathetic and kind, and has many friends. It was thought that she would exercise a strong influence over the czar, and this was encouraged by the issuance of a ukase by the czar on the subject of establishing a central council of administration for workhouses and reformatories, which was designed to provide the poor with honorable means of employment, in which the czarina proposes to take the institution under her immediate patronage. It is said that her majesty drew up the statutes in question herself.

Russell May Escape Extradition.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The question as to whether Russell, the Springfield (Ills.) postoffice robber, who escaped to Europe from Ludlow street jail, New York, and was afterwards arrested at Bruges, Belgium, can be secured through extradition proceedings, is giving the authorities here much trouble. The Belgian authorities having called attention to the fact that their law knows no such offense as an attempt to break into and rob a postoffice.
The law officers of the postoffice department and the attorney general are striving to arrange extradition warrants that shall fall within the terms of the extradition treaty.

Five Burned by Molten Metal.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 16.—Five men were burned yesterday by the overturning of a huge vessel at the Bessemer mill of the Pennsylvania Steel works, just after a blast had been turned on. William and Frank Given, brothers, are the most seriously injured.

Senator Hill to Lecture.

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—Senator David B.
Hill is going on the lecture platform, and Chicago will be the city of his debut. Senator Hill will make his first appearance at the Auditorium on the night of Friday, Dec. 6. The subject of his lecture will be "Liberty."

BARRETT'S DOUBLE LIFE.

His Wife Knew Nothing of His Methods Until After His Arrest.

New York, Nov. 16.—A romantic sequel to the conviction and sentence to life imprisonment in 1891 of William Barrett for the murder of James Farrar in Weston, Mass., has just been made public. While Barrett led the life of a criminal in Boston, his wife, it is said, was ignorant that he was a burglar, and, supposing him to be in business there, lived in this city with luxurious surroundings. Mrs. Barrett was a fine horsewoman, and kept two thoroughbreds for riding purposes at a riding academy. Each day a groom brought one of them to the house in Fifty-eighth street and Mrs. Barrett, in perfect fitting riding costume, was accustomed to canter through her park. Like herself, her only son, who lived with her, was always dressed in the height of fashion.

Checks for the rent, signed by the husband, were punctually forwarded to the landlord of the apartment, and consequently not the slightest whisper of doubt as to the integrity of Barrett or his wife was ever heard. It was not until after Barrett's arrest for Mr. Farrar's murder that her eyes were opened to the truth. A man named James E. Chaffey, whom Barrett had accused of being an accomplice of his, is the reported medium through which her dream was shattered.

Visiting her husband in Waltham jail, Mrs. Barrett heard his confession, and then, womanlike, determined to help him in his plight to the extent of her power.
She sold her horses, furniture and jewelry and applied the proceeds to Barrett's defense. Meanwhile she accepted the hospitality of Chaffey's family, and lived with them for a time. Then, it is asserted, Chaffey availed himself of the opportunity to rob the woman of all she possessed, and to appropriate for himself the valuable plunder which her husband had gathered together and stored away.

Decided Against the Goulds.

New York, Nov. 16.—It was decided by the supreme court yesterday that the heirs of Jay Gould must pay taxes on $10,000,000 of personal property, the valuation on which the tax commissioners based their as-essment. George J. Gould and the other executors of the estate applied for a writ of certiorari against the commissioners, claiming that their action might be reviewed by the court, claiming that the assessment was made Jan. 9, 1893, and that they did not have the property in their possession at that time, as the will was not probated until two days afterward. The general term dismissed the application for a writ, the Goulds appealing and the supreme court dismissing the appeal, thus sustaining the lower court.

Will Refuse H's Election Certificate.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 16.—A. J. Carroll, ex-speaker of the Kentucky house, will refuse his certificate of re-election to the legislature, because it is alleged he secured the place through Republican treachery.
His Republican opponent in the district withdrew before the election without actually appearing, and as a result the ballots were issued without a Republican candidate in opposition to the ex-speaker.
Mr. Carroll will probably be a candidate at the special election necessary, and is expected to sweep the district.

Murdered His Two Children.

PHOENIXVILLE, Pa., Nov. 16.—Thomas Edwin, 30 years old, one of the thugs of his town, killed his two children, a boy and a girl, both of them under 10 years of age, yesterday. The children were found almost instantly and the father, who is a local notoriety, was arrested. The father, who is winning his money by his wife's labor, and on Friday of last week was with his wife, the cause of the tragedy is what caused the murder.

Mayor May Fight Fitzsimmons.

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 16.—Last night Don Stuart received from W. A. Bann the following in answer to his offer made on Thursday night. "Gibson has retired from boxing," Stuart showed the telegram to the Associated Press reporters, and said: "If you go to New York anyway and ask Gibson to fight, and if he positively refuses, then I will fight a match with Fitzsimmons, and I promise you I will win a good one."

Mrs. Gough Wants Another Trial.

BOSTON, Nov. 16.—Mrs. Helen M. Gough, whose $25,000 damage suit against Congressman Elijah A. Morse for alleged intel has just been settled for a second time by a verdict against the plaintiff, has filed a motion for a new trial on the ground that the verdict rendered in the recent trial was not in accordance with the evidence submitted. The time for a hearing has not yet been fixed.

Five Years for a Dishonest Official.

TRAVERS, O., Nov. 16.—Ex-Treasurer Manville Green, of Clay, of Lawrence county, was yesterday sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the Ohio penitentiary and to pay a fine of $11,000, he having pleaded guilty to embezzling the county's funds.

Forty-eight British Marines Drowned.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 16.—A steam launch belonging to the British cruiser Elgar is reported to have been lost on Wednesday near Nagasaki, Japan, and forty-eight marines who were on board of her were drowned.

NUGETTS OF NEWS.

An oil well spouting 2,000 barrels a day was struck yesterday on the Baker farm, near Rising Sun, O.

Walter Bradt, timekeeper for the Claver leaf railroad at Frankfort, Ind., 14 in jail, charged with padding payrolls for his own benefit.

A large barge is ashore near Plymouth, England, and it is feared that the crew, who have taken refuge in the rigging will be lost.

At Gibson, La., the boiler on Stanton Brothers' launch exploded, killing one man instantly and mortally wounding two other men.

Ferdinand Bennett, ex-chief of police of St. Louis, yesterday received a ten year sentence at Los Angeles, Cal., for killing Detective Lawson.

ARMENIAN MASSACRE.

The Ferocity of Turkish Soldiers Further Confirmed.

PURELY A MASSACRE OF INNOCENTS

All the Looted Done by Soldiers at the Command of Their Officers.—Reported Notice to the Sultan of a Joint Naval Demonstration by the Powers.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 16.—A letter from Erzerum, nearly four columns in length, dated Nov. 3, fully confirms the accounts previously published concerning the massacre there. The writer says that it is impossible yet to ascertain the number of the killed. Some persons assert that it will reach fully 20,000. Perhaps a thousand is not far short of the total. Continuing the writer says:

"We have not dared to go to the quarters of the city where the Turks are too numerous. It might be said of the tribes of Christians who have been victims thus far, and I have not the opportunity of investigating more than a tenth of the cases, I have yet to hear of a single dead Turk in this struggle. This, I think, disproves of the charges of the aggressions brought up against the Armenians. The bare, bold fact is that it was purely a massacre of the innocent inhabitants by the enraged Turks, and but for the presence of foreign consuls things would have been far worse.
With the coming of winter the misery in store for the remaining Armenians will be terrible."

The correspondent quoted, who was staying at the American missions, says that he has heard testimony in various quarters that the government ordered the massacre, which was to be executed according to preconcerted signals. As a proof of the suddenness he says that an American missionary named Chambers had just gone to the postoffice in order to telegraph to Bitlis that everything was quiet. Before he got back to the mission the firing had begun in deadly earnest.
Bullets were whizzing close by him.

Mr. Chambers told the correspondent that Shaker Pasha had promised in the event of riots to place soldiers at each end of the street in the locality of the foreign consulates and of the American mission, and whether from this reason, or because they feared a warm reception, the rioters avoided this part of the city. All the loot-ing, it was claimed, was done by regular soldiers, at the command of the officers.
Many women hung around the soldiers for the purpose of carrying off the plunder.

Mr. Chambers attended to the wounded refugees, and during the night the mission house was crowded and as foul smelling as a menagerie or an opium den.
Sleep was impossible. The English consul was Shaker Pasha, who said he was angry when he heard that the soldiers had been looting the residences and shops of the Armenians. The correspondent gives numerous and detailed stories from Armenians and others, amply confirming the previous account of the butcheries and horrors. The correspondent says that 3,000 soldiers were ordered out, but that Shaker Pasha was powerless to control them.

Ministers were in session all the entire day yesterday, the sultan awakening to the nature of the position which he was in at the present time, but he is so fully occupied that all that would be required would be for some palace spy to divulge his confidential plot and turn all his majesty's thoughts into another channel.

A Proposed Naval Demonstration.

VENICE, Nov. 16.—A Constantinople dispatch received here reports that the ambassadors will today give notice to the sultan of their intention to arrange for a joint naval demonstration.

Babies Crushed Death a Wagon.

SAVANNAH, Nov. 16.—A baby carriage containing Effie Moultrie and Sadie Proctor, two colored infants, was thrown on its side while the children were under the wheels of a passing wagon. The head of the younger child was smashed, killing it instantly, and the wagon ran over the chest of the other child, inflicting fatal injuries.

Twelve Years for a Brute.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 16.—Before Judge Hart, in quarter sessions court No. 1, Joseph H. Weaver pleaded guilty to a felonious assault on 14-year-old Bessie Bailey, and was sentenced to twelve years in the Eastern penitentiary. Weaver, who is a single man, advertised for a girl to act as "companion for his wife." When the girl reached his bachelor apartments he told her to believe his wife was temporarily absent, and during the night accomplished his purpose.

Saved by His Attorney's Plea.

VANOVER, B. C., Nov. 16.—In the Benson murder trial the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the prisoner was immediately released. The verdict was a great surprise, as the defense was very weak, and Judge Walker charged strongly against Smith, the accused. Bowser, the accused's counsel, made a brilliant address in his behalf, lasting over two hours, and his speech undoubtedly saved the prisoner's neck.

Chinese Concession to Germany.

LOXDOX, Nov. 16.—A dispatch received here from Shanghai says that it is positively stated that China has agreed that Germany shall occupy one of the islands near the entrance to the report of Amoy for the purpose of establishing a naval yard and a coaling station. It is feared this step will be followed by complications, as France and Russia will seek similar privileges.

Caught in the Belting.

TRENTON, Nov. 16.—James Bloomfield, a man living in Morrisville, Pa., and employed at the Trenton Iron works, had both legs and both arms broken. His clothing became caught in the belting in the engine room, and before the engine could be stopped all his clothing was torn off. He is at the City hospital, and will die.

The quantity has been doubled, but the price is still 25c. Imitations and substitutes may be offered you—look out. The genuine bottle bears the name—Perry Davis & Son.

OVER THE SHAWANGUNKS.

WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS IN SULLIVAN COUNTY ARE DOING.

All the News from All Parts of the County—Many Matters of Interest Condensed from our Sullivan Exchanges and Contributed by Wide-Awake Correspondents.

The foot of a young man named Cole, living at the Finch Chemical Works at Roscoe, was amputated, Thursday, by Drs. Miller and Tuttle, of that place, and Dr. DeKay, of Livingston Manor. Cole's foot was turned when a child and he had never been able to step on it.

G. L. McLaughlin, of Monticello, has purchased the interest of his partner in the insurance business of Calbreath & McLaughlin, and has associated his brother, Harry B. McLaughlin, with them.

John Leber, janitor of the Good Templars' Lodge at Mongaup Valley, fell dead to the lodge room, Saturday night, Nov. 2nd, while closing the hall after the meeting of the lodge.

The citizens of Livingston Manor having subscribed for $700 worth of the stock of the Sullivan County Telephone Company, the work of putting up a line to connect that village with Liberty is to be begun at once.

Richard LaTourette, of Mongaup Valley, has been engaged to run the engine and pump of Monticello's water works system.

John Y. Buchanan has sold his grocery store in Monticello to Frank Ray and will remove to New York.

Cornelius Hatch, an old and highly respected citizen of Monticello, died there Nov. 8th, of pneumonia, aged seventy-one years. His wife died of the same disease, aged seventy-eight years.

Donald Ackerly, of near Beaverkill, was kicked in the face, Monday, by a horse, receiving a bad cut on the forehead and having his left cheek bone broken. Mr. Ackerly is nearly eighty years old.

Hattie Layman, daughter of Levi Layman, a citizen of the town of Delaware, whose eccentricities have been the subject of many a newspaper item, was taken Tuesday to the home for feeble minded women at Newark, N. Y., by order of Superintendent of the Poor Calkins.

Tom Houleha's new Liberty House will be ready for occupancy by Dec 20th. It is the largest and most completely appointed all-the-year house in the county.

Mrs. John Gorman died of measles and pneumonia at her home in the town of Neversink, Nov. 8th, aged forty-eight years.

A new roof is being put on the Liberty Baptist Church and other repairs are contemplated.

Mr. Farnschild, a New York architect, has purchased of John A. Darbee, ten acres of land on the top of Darbee hill, near Liberty, and has begun the erection of a handsome residence there. He also contemplates building a large boarding house. The view from Mr. Farnschild's purchase is one of the finest in the vicinity of Liberty.

The citizens of Callicoon Depot are considering plans for supplying the village with water.

Many carloads of apples and potatoes were shipped from Callicoon Depot, this week.

There are many cases of measles in the town of Neversink and Liberty. The disease is especially prevalent in the vicinity of Neversink Falls.

Billiousness

Is caused by torpidity of the liver. This prevents the digestion of food, which ferments and decomposes in the stomach and causes distress, dizziness, headache, insomnia, nervousness. Hood's Pills invigorate the liver, cure billiousness, constipation, jaundice, sick headache, etc. 25c; all druggists.

Dr. Miles' Pain Pills, "One does a dozen."

BEST KNOWN OF AMERICA'S WRITERS.

M. Quad, the Detroit Free Press Man, Made Well by Paine's Celery Compound.

Mr. Charles B. Lewis is more familiarly known to the thousands whose life he has cheered as M. Quad. It must be more than a score of years since the country was laughing over the sayings of his honor and Bligh, chronicled by Mr. Lewis to the Detroit Free Press. From that time until now M. Quad has delighted the public with unnumbered sketches of character, overflowing with a humor that appealed to readers all the more strongly because they recognized the fidelity to life under the fun.

Among Mr. Lewis' recent creations the Bowers, Brother Gardiner, Mrs. Gallups, Tribulations, Possum Skatches, and the Arizona Kicker are destined to long life. Mr. Lewis' admirers will be surprised to learn that, like Walter Scott, Mark Twain and other highly gifted authors, he has produced work of rare quality while tormented by pain.

Mr. Lewis suffered intensely from rheumatism. "It made my days and nights miserable," he says, "and, of course, the agony was greater in bad weather. At the same time my nerves were weak, and I was in worse shape than I hope ever to be again. Yes, I took advice by the yard and medicine by the quart with no success. I was broken in spirit and bent almost double in the body, when somebody suggested Paine's celery compound for the nervousness. That remedy made short work of the nervousness and of the rheumatism, too. A few doses made me feel much better, and to-day I am well; a happy change that I attribute to the use of Paine's celery compound. It gives me sincere pleasure to bear witness to the merits of the compound. I know at least a dozen authors and journalists who have found it a remedy for the same complaints."

Rheumatism attacks the body when it is tired, and when its functions begin to act sluggishly. Disordered nerves, faulty digestion, and a slow, incomplete nutrition of the body invite rheumatism, just as they do neuralgia and nervous debility. There is no surer starting point for rheumatism than a "run down," nervous condition.

Paine's celery compound increases the appetite by giving a healthy tone to the stomach. It makes sure that the entire nervous system gets completely nourished. It regulates the bowels and the kidneys, and encourages them to get rid of harmful and poisonous matter that the sluggish system has allowed to lodge in the blood, thus causing rheumatism and kindred disorders.

You cannot cure rheumatism by outward applications. The disease is due to internal disorder and must be constitutionally attacked and got rid of. Paine's celery compound has done for thousands of other people exactly what it did for Mr. Lewis. They were sufferers as he was, and the compound has made them well.

The warmest praises of Paine's celery compound are from men and women of high character and keen intelligence. They know they are doing a work of humanity and mercy in commencing to all persons out of health this certain and speedy means of getting strong and well.

CHEAPER THAN LICENSES.

Farcical Prosecutions of Excise Law Violators in Wawarsing.

The prosecution of the unlicensed liquor dealers, of the town of Wawarsing, commenced by the temperance people of the town has ended in a farce. Tuesday, fifteen hotel and saloon keepers outside of Ellenville pleaded guilty before Justice Winant to selling liquor without a license on May 9th, and every day thereafter, and were fined $5 each. On Wednesday, twenty-two Ellenville dealers pleaded guilty before Squire Hogan, to selling unlawfully on every day since May 9th, and were fined $5 each. This cleans up the score for eight months and is a good deal cheaper than taking out licenses.

Five Miles on the Ties.

From the Livingston Manor Ensign.

A pair of wheels in train No. 32, Conductor Fallon, jumped the track at Centerville Station, Thursday morning, and ran on ties to Red Hill Switch, a distance of five miles before it was discovered. But little damage was done.

"How to Cure All Skin Diseases."

Simply apply "Swayne's Ointment." No internal medicine required. Cures tetter, eczema, itch, all eruptions on the face, hands, nose etc., leaving the skin clear, white and healthy. Its great healing and curative powers are possessed by no other remedy. Ask your druggist for Swayne's Ointment.

Milton Ward Hunting for His Missing Wife.

Milton Ward, of Livingston Manor, was in Hancock, Tuesday, looking for his missing wife, who he heard was working in one of the hotels in that village. Ward still professes to believe that his wife either eloped with Riley Carl or was abducted by him. He says he is very anxious to locate his wife to relieve himself of the suspicion of having murdered her.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

flagman at Kross's crossing has removed his family to this city.
—Mr. Richard Knight, of Stock-port, Pa., was in this city yesterday, on a short visit to the family of his mother on Lake avenue.
—It has been reported that Mr.
Walter Wilcox was sick with typhoid fever. As he is engaged in business and has not had typhoid fever, it is but simple justice to him to state that his illness is caused by malarial fever. Mr. Wilcox is rapidly convalescing.

—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Crass left this morning for a visit to friends in New York and Stamford, Conn.

—Mrs. John O. Parsons, of Newark, who has been spending a few days with relatives and friends in this city, returned home, to-day.

Mr. Crist's sister, Mrs. W. N. Keapp.

—Miss Mary A. Stewart, of 14 Liberty street, is growing weaker every day, and her condition is quite critical.

MIDDLETOWN'S INCREASING BUSINESS.

Unusually Heavy Shipments of Merchandise—What We Need to Assure Our Permanent Prosperity.
There is no surer promoter of the business situation than the railroads.
If they are rushed with freight, it shows an activity in general trade and the whole country will sooner or later feel the benefits. For several months the Erie has had all it could do to care for its through freight, and all the while local business has been increasing until there are not men enough now to fill stock enough to carry the freight without working overtime, and, on Sundays, every passenger engine and every crew that can be called into service must work all day in helping to clear up the blockade of freightcars in the yards all along the line.

Last Sunday morning there were 1,000 loaded freight cars in the Port Jervis yard, which had to be moved during the day and night and on the previous Sunday there were 2,100.

While there does not seem to be an unusual activity in business in our own city, there is a healthy condition of trade and when it is known that an average of 20 cars per day are loaded and unloaded in the Erie yard, to say nothing of the local business done by the O. and W. and N. Y., S. and W., it will be apparent that Middletown's volume of business is no small matter.

While Middletown merchants ship a considerable quantity of goods, the bulk of the local railroad business is merchandise shipped into the town and which, of course, is sold over the counters of our merchants. Middletown continues to hold its own as a business town and if we had a plenty of good water which could be sold at small cost, or better still, given away to manufacturers, we would have ahead at a mighty rate.

FOR A NEW ERIE DEPOT

The Board of Trade Wants a Site for the Erie's $5,000,000 of Available Cash, and They Ought to Have It.

Now that the Erie Railway Company has been reorganized and has a fund of $5,000,000 in cash for general improvements, Middletown feels that it should have a new depot—something that has long been needed and often promised, and what the Erie to do itself justice should build at once.

A special meeting of the Board of Trade was held, yesterday, at which a resolution was passed directing the president and secretary to confer with the officers of the Erie and respectfully present Middletown's claim for a new depot at James street.

Leveling the Forests.

From the Livingston Manor Ensign.
A low estimate would be that for the present and for some months to come, there are at least 500 cords of wood cut each working day for the acid factories along the O. and W., between Livingston Manor and Walton. These works are all short of wood and will make a great effort to get a year's supply ahead, as it does not pay to operate them with green wood.

An Action for Divorce.

Mrs. W. G. Stanton, of Oneonta, N. Y., has commenced proceedings to obtain a decree of separation from her husband, with alimony and counsel fees—Oneonta Star.
Mr. Stanton is a son of the late Lewis N. Stanton, for three terms County Clerk of Sullivan county, and is well known in this city.

Injured by Falling Down Stairs.

Mrs. H. C. Benson had the misfortune to make a misstep and fall down a flight of stairs at her home, on Highland avenue, this morning.
She sustained an injury to her spine, the extent of which cannot yet be determined.

The Flower Show and Fair.

The flower show and fair at the First Presbyterian Church closed, last evening.

The attendance was large. The financial results of the enterprise were entirely satisfactory to the ladies who had the matter in charge.

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN GOSHEN.

The Cake Sale—A Great Disappointment—May be Called to St. James' Church—The Bowling Match.

From Our Regular Correspondent.
—Don't forget the pie and cake sale which takes place in the chapel of the Presbyterian Church, on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 27th. Any one desiring cakes or pies of any description will be supplied. Orders may be given to any member of the committee, which is as follows: Mrs.
Henry Sinsabaugh, Mrs. D. O. Dur-land, Mrs. J. W. Hayce, Mrs. J. A.
Howell, Mrs. J. W. Gott, Miss A. E.
Merriam.

—A package of dry goods found on the street awaits an owner at the post office.
—Residents of Goshen will learn with regret, that, by reason of the refusal of the Erie Railroad Co. to grant a reasonable freight rate to the Empire State Granite Company, the order has been given to erect the necessary buildings for the dressing of stone at Pine Island, and not in this village, as was hoped.

—Rev. Geo. C. Betts, of Dutchess county, will again officiate at St.
James' Church, Sunday. A proposition has been made to him to locate here permanently as rector of the church.
—Bowling Team No. 3, captained by Dr. C. G. Parker, who, history tells us, successfully piloted the "Reubens" to victory, last year,
"went against" Team No. 4, Harvey Goodale's aggregation, on the Goshen alleys, last night, and they fell —prodigious far and hard. The scores were as follows: First game—Team No. 4, 794; Team No. 3, 724.
Second game—Team No. 4, 696; Team No. 3, 632.

Some Matters of Local Interest—A Proposed Amendment of Breakfast Dinner, and Tea.

From a Special Correspondent.
—The ladies of St. James' Guild, met to sew on Thursday afternoon at the residence Mr. William M.
Sayer, on Greenwich street.

—The Ladies' Whist Club will be entertained next Friday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Jas. Van Nuyse on South street.

—A meeting of the wardens and vestrymen of St. James' Church was held in the chapel, this afternoon.
—The writer once heard it suggested by a person of an aesthetic turn of mind that probably a time would come when eating in public would be considered vulgar, when all foods necessary to the nourishment of the body would be reduced to essences, which could be drunk, in the privacy of one's own apartment, from glasses, graceful in form and beautiful in coloring. This of course would be most elegant and refined, but would do away with much that is pleasant in our lives, for there is nothing perhaps that more develops the social qualities in the majority of people than the assembling of them together about a well served and well appointed table. Conversation is apt to be at its best and brightest upon such occasions, and he who lays aside his cares for the moment and eats his meal, whether it be the dinner of herbs or the staid ox, in cheerful company, is seldom troubled with dyspepsia. On the other hand the ideas of the food essences quaffed in retirement may appear not unpleasantly to the housekeeper to whom the thought of the "three elegant meals a day" has become a bugbear.

The thought of them may cause her to cease thinking regretfully of those sunny islands in the Pacific, where nature has done so much toward lessening the householder's care; where the climate is so mild that one cannot, of extreme simplicity of fashion, do for all occasions, and where, in a guest arrives unexpectedly, she is only to step out and shake a broad pine tree, pick a little fruit, and her dinner is prepared; where she may be fortunate enough to have a spring of boiling water in the front yard so that she can have a 5 o'clock tea without the trouble of putting the kettle over. She may even cease to wish that a happy date had made her the wife of the man in the dim museum, whose simple bill of fare consists of broken flower pots, nails and other articles of food that require little or no preparation. Such a man as that would easily be a convenience in a family, for he would eat up all the little old things that happen to be left over and that are often so hard to dispose of satisfactorily. But to return to our sheep that have wandered rather far afield, so long as we grovel here below, the ever recurring breakfast, dinner and tea must continue to give us food, not only for our bodies but for reflection for three hundred and sixty-five days in the year.

That Joyful Feeling

With the exhilarating sense of renewed health and strength and internal cleanliness which follows the use of Syrup Figs, is unknown to the few who have not progressed beyond the old time medicine and the cheap substitutes sometimes offered, but never accepted by the well informed.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Two Suits Against Electric Railroad Companies.

Most of the time of the Circuit Court in Newburgh, yesterday, was taken up with the trial of an action of Thos. O. Herrington against the Newburgh Electric Railway Co., who sued for damages for an injury alleged to have been sustained by a fall from a car.

The jury returned a verdict of no cause of action.

The Middletown-Goshen Traction Co., was not so fortunate and a verdict of $500 was given against it. The suit was brought by George Kane, who wanted $500 damages for injuries which he said were received by being struck by one of the company's cars. The jury did not think him so greatly injured and reduced the amount asked for.

On Monday the trial of Geo. J.
Jewett, accused of killing the "New York Pig," at Highland Falls, will begin.

A Wedding Reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin E. Musgrave returned from their wedding trip on the Middletown Express last evening. They gave a reception to about fifty of their friends at the residence of the groom's mother, 161 South street. The evening was very pleasantly spent in social amusements, in listening to music by an orchestra and in doing justice to a fine supper served by Caterer Hasbrouck.

Very Successful Hunters.

Messrs. Louis Hedge and Henry C. Sengetack returned, last evening, from a three days' hunting trip in the vicinity of the latter's former home, near Centerville Station, Sullivan county. They brought home the following game: One fox, twenty-seven rabbits, nine hare, twelve partridge, nine woodcock and twenty-two grey squirrels. This is the largest variety of game that has been brought to this city by any one party this season.

A Baby Cyclone in the Town of Mount Hope.

The rain storm of day before yesterday was accompanied with but moderate wind hereabouts, and yet only seven miles west of this city, a trip of a thirty lying between Ketcham's Mills and Finchville, was visited by a gale of such cyclonic force as to move several outbuildings from their bases.

"Lost in New York" at the Casino, To-night.

The famous aquatic drama, "Lost in New York," will be produced at the Casino, this evening, with marvelous scenic effects and mechanical accessories. The great scene of the play is the real water scene, giving a moonlight view of the East River, where Jennie, the heroine, rescues her mother and little sister. The play has been well received where ever presented.

Dollar Excursion to New York.

BUSINESS NEWS!

It is more interesting news to most men to know where a $30 suit can be bought for $20 than that hen's fashions will be worn on ladies' bonnets this winter.

We announce the news that we are selling clothing on the above basis and lots of it.

Regarding smooth goods for Overcoats. We do not hesitate saying that for $20 we can offer the best value we have ever had.
